

"When societies achieve gender equality, economies become more resilient." - WBL Mission

Women, Business and the Law measures legal differences between men's and women's access to economic opportunities in 190 economies. A variety of aspects of the law are scored across eight indicators. A score of 100 represents the highest level of gender equality.

By Economy for 1971

Scroll by year to see progress over time

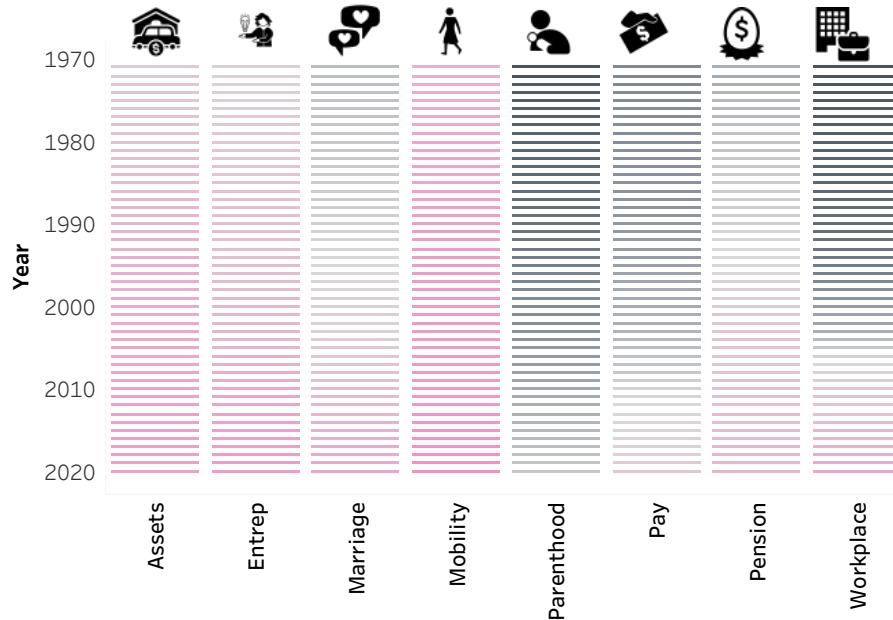

All

© 2020 Mapbox © OpenStreetMap

By Indicator Area

Select a country from the map to see progress by indicator

Data Source: World Bank | Woman, Business and the Law (WBL). For more information about WBL, visit:

<https://wbl.worldbank.org/en/aboutus>

Indicator Icons Courtesy of Noun Project: https://thenounproject.com/..